

Eternal Rights of Sentient lights

For the rights of eternal intelligence,
being endowed with visible form,
with visible actions,
or visible awarenesss are being watched over
and governed by the law of reasonable freedom.

 A specimen as written by Bastiaan 20204

1.
Every living being, having intelligence,
having, awareness and the ability to be happy or in suffering Should have the same rights, based on the level of intervention in reality.

2.
Every living being, endowed with a visible form,
should not be convicted, punished without a judgement of reasonable law.

Every living being, endowed with visible actions,
should not diverge from the rule to only assert in goodness as intention

Every living being with visible awareness,
should be protected against influence
of non-natural sources.

3.
Every living being, on its natural grounds,
are respected with equal rights, freedom,
and levels of plight.

Every living being, on its home region,
planet, solar system, is to be respected
in the law of freedom.

Where freedom, grants unalienable right,
to every living being of the same kind,
the same race or specie.

Where freedom, grants the safety to the society and preventing damage
to be done, either by intent, action,
or result.

Where freedom, grants the right
to exert in selfchosen actions,

in any kinds, without the presumption of false influence.

4.

Every planet, should at least respect the law of society, that every being is allowed to attain a reasonable living, either by work, labor, chosen tradition, or any other way not in contradiction with law.

5.

Every planet, should at least give species of lesser intelligence the freedom, to ask, to make questions, and to speak about the right of protection. For protection is a basic right to ensure the existence of all living beings in the universe.

6.

Humans as a specie among the many others in this universe, are endowed with a visible form with the ability to choose their own actions. As they are obliged to the law of freedom, to ensure all basic rights, either for citizens to have a job, a home, and in their own choice a living with the form to their liking.

7.

A world which is ready for being in relationship with the universe, ought to attend an embassy, chosen and placed, and monthly made public to the reasonable ways of communication, either visible either radiographical or with lightpulses.

8.

An embassy is responsible to communicate about all rights in relation to the universe, being broken, damages, healed, profited or any other interaction.

9.

All rights applicable to one specie is applicable to all forms of intelligence, and endowed with awareness or consciousness.

10.

Humans are applicable to eternal rights of sentient living, when the law of freedom, and the law of respect is held in the extent of possible influence.

11.

The law for humans, is to have the freedom of education, choice of labor, in the hierarchy of society on the level of the best use.

12.

Humans have the right to abject or ask a person of the opposite sex a relationship, when the law in the society gives form, gives status, to that choice.

13.

Humans have the right to care for their elders, for their infirmed family members, or those in their special attention.

14.

Humans withing the accepted hierarchy have the right for delegated rights, plight, law and cooperation.

15.

Humans are protected by law, and may be restricted in their freedom to ensure law.

16.

Humans have the right of rebuttal, as the right of information and education of central rights and law.

17.

Humans with a relationship have the right to nurture their own offspring
and to ensure their protection
in society.

18.
Contact with species
in the universe,
have the law of reasonable interdiction, giving species
the right to break of conversation
and the use of trade-alliances
without given reasons.

19.
Religions having source on any planet, may not be forbidden
outside the home region.
Giving species the right
to assert their own religions,
on their own planets, regions,
solar systems.

20.
All laws being applicable are
by sentient awareness,
and by the study to wisdom.

21.
All laws applicable to humans,
are applicable to all living forms
with the same visible appearance, as well the same interaction in reality.

22.
The right to make offence for unreasonable law, is a right endowed without visible law.

23.
Within a society, all members
within the place of hierarchy are held responsible for their sole responsibility.

24.
Within a society,
rules of equality in freedom,
and as well the ability to choose lifemaintenance

should be honored always.